About Us

Glamma Gals, Linda and Stacy Waldenberg of Montana have partnered with expert wine maker, Tom Baer of Solana Cellars in Paso Robles, CA to create Glamma Wine.

Glamma Wine is inspired by everyone who loves to celebrate good times with family, friends and fine wine. We came up with our concept (of course while drinking wine) to have a fun gift wine for women. It is the women of the world who turn a birthday or holiday into a celebration. They bring the fun, glitz, glam and joy to the party. We encourage women to celebrate each other, their family and friends. Get your girlfriends together, laugh and share life and of course drink wine....Glamma Wine!"

Glamma Wine has recently been in Woman's World Magazine, Life & Style Magazine, featured on Examiner.com, Elite Magazine as one of their "fabulous finds", featured on MsCareerGirl.com and a video tasting on wineliving.info.

We currently have a Cabernet, Viognier, Chardonnay and a sparkling wine called Bubble Bling. Our future plans include selling gift items on our website and adding other varieties of wines.

Solana Cellars has an importing license and can direct ship to your door. Winery license number is 5872955-004-DWR and importing license is 5872955-002-DWR.
